IN ORDER TO BE ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE THE PAUL T. BURCH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP, you must submit with this application a typewritten double-spaced essay of 500-1,000 words in response to this question:

Paul T. Burch was the Upstate Regional Director of UPSEU until he lost his battle with cancer in 1996. Paul left a lasting impact on the entire public sector union movement. For Paul, working to improve the lives of working men and women was not just a job, it was a life's vocation. He devoted more than three decades to right wrongs, to fight injustices, and to tirelessly advocate for the underdog . . . and he did so with quiet dignity and humility.

IN 500-1000 WORDS, please state how you, through your current community involvement and furthering your education, will be able to carry on Paul's commitment to helping people.

The scholarship committee reserves the right to reject an application if false information is provided. It may from time to time adjust the criteria, procedures, forms, etc., as is deemed necessary to protect the integrity of the scholarship program and/or to ensure its most effective use and administration.
